

Stephanie Tanner

*WaterSense Products Lead
EPA WaterSense® Program*

Stephanie Tanner is an Environmental Engineer with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency responsible for the development of water efficiency and performance specifications under the WaterSense® Program. Prior to EPA she managed a water efficiency program for Federal Facilities and wrote a number of guides to water efficiency for federal facilities. Ms. Tanner has also worked for the U.S. and German Navies and served in the Merchant Marine as a shipboard engineer. She holds B.S. in Engineering and a Master of Engineering Management.

